

From: Gordon Tillman
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 12/4/01 11:02am
Subject: Microsoft's Proposal

Howdy Folks,

Just want to offer my two-cent's worth... I feel very strongly that Microsoft's proposal is a blatant attempt by the company to extend its monopoly even further.

They should be heavily penalized for their crimes. The justice department should take the money and use it to help defray the expenses that our federal government has incurred in helping to bring up the level of technology in the schools.

Regards,

Gordon Tillman
Senior Software Development Specialist
AGS/Lindy Software